

Children and Career Planning

Fact: Children learn best through play

Myth: Children don't understand occupations

Fact: While playing in the Dramatic Play Area, Children always choose the Occupational Dress-Up Clothes first

Myth: Children will never become what they've once pretended to be

Fact: Children begin thinking about what they'd "like to be" when they grow up at a very young age

Fact: All South Carolina Students have access to SCOIS-CIS to continue their exploration and research on the very occupations that they once pretended to be
